PRESS RELEASE

LEIGHTON BUZZARD MARKET OPEN ON CHRISTMAS EVE

The Christmas holidays fall over a weekend this year so there will be no market on Saturday 26th December. Market traders and Leighton-Linslade Town Council are making sure customers can still access market goods by adding an additional smaller Christmas Eve Market to the pre-Christmas shopping period. The Eve market will take place on Thursday 24th December between 9am and 2pm. Traders will use their own market pitch structures so it will not look the same as the regular market, yet customers can get hold of fresh fruit and veg and some the last-minute items.

The last full market before Christmas will be on Tuesday 22nd December, 9am to 3pm. Market opening times over the Christmas and the New Year period will be as follows:

Tuesday 29th December

Saturday 2nd January

Tuesday 5th January

The market has been through changes over the last few months, yet traders have remained keen to attend and make sure customers know the market can be relied on as a safe outdoor shopping location. The distancing of stalls, and safe shopping practices of traders and customers, has been essential to towards ensuring the market continues to operate in the heart of the Town.
