PRESS RELEASE

REFLECTION & THANKSGIVING, SUNDAY 6TH MARCH

Councillors of Leighton-Linslade Town Council are providing a space this coming Sunday (6th March) for the town to pause and acknowledge what we have all been through over the recent pandemic period and of course, still deal with today. A Reflect and Give Thanks Day will take place in the High Street from 11am until 3pm.

Members of the public who have submitted photographs to be displayed will be able to view them on a large screen throughout the day and join the Mayor of Leighton-Linslade, Cllr. Farzana Kharawala along with faith groups and Central Bedfordshire Council in moments of quiet reflection and thanks at 12pm and 2pm.

On display throughout the day is a printed copy of doorstep photographs taken by local photographer Brad Gommon alongside a book of reflection which members of the community can use to record their memories of the pandemic which will be stored at the Town Council offices.

All Saints Church will be holding its monthly bereavement café from 2pm until 4pm within the Church for those who wish to come together with others who have been bereaved for company and support.

Light refreshments will be available within the High Street and we are asking all those attending to be mindful of others.

For more information about the event, please contact the events team by email eventsteam@leightonlinslade-tc.gov.uk or by calling 01525 631920
