PRESS RELEASE

2nd Leighton Buzzard Market Trader gets place in National Competition final

Congratulations to Chad Killoran, wildlife artist, for winning his category of Arts and Crafts at the London Regional heat of the Young Trader of the Year 2022 competition! The London regional heat was held at Portobello Road Market on Sunday 7th August.

Chad will now be going through to the national final of the NMTF Young Trader of the Year Competition later this month, joined by fellow Leighton Buzzard Market trader, Rebekka Johnson, with her handmade stationery business, The Little Print Box, who secured her place in the final at the East of England Regional heat in Bury St Edmunds on 27th July.

The National Final of the competition is held in Stratford-Upon-Avon on Friday and Saturday, 26th and 27th August. Chad is pictured with his well-earned trophy!

Congratulations to Chad and Rebekka and good luck for the national final.
