

Linslade Canal Festival 2024

Terms and Conditions – Narrow Boats

Please read and note the following:

Licence and Insurance

Narrow boats attending the festival MUST have a current Canal & River Trust licence, which must be displayed at all times and have public liability insurance in place. The organisers reserve the right to refuse entry to any boats that do not comply.

Commercial Narrowboats

Traders MUST have a current Canal & River Trust Licence, Trading Licence, current public liability insurance cover in place, proof of registration with local authority and relevant Food & Hygiene certificates if applicable to the business. Full payment will be requested shortly after your Registration has been completed with payment due within 14 days, you are able to pay by BACS transfer or Worldpay.

Boaters trading at the Festival or allowing members of the public on board their Narrowboat MUST provide proof that they have a minimum of £5,000,000 public liability insurance in place. Proof of current cover must be provided prior to the event taking place.

A risk assessment form MUST be completed and returned prior to the event in order to be eligible to trade.

Non-Commercial Narrowboats

Please ensure that you have a copy of your Third-Party Liability Insurance Cover and a completed Risk Assessment with you on festival day.

Health & Safety

Narrow boat owners have a responsibility to take care of their own and other peoples' health & safety while attending the festival. Please ensure that you do not obstruct the towpath. All rubbish must be cleared away and dogs must not be allowed to soil the towpath or event site.

Signage & Structures

Please do not staple any signage to the trees. There must be NO structures across the towpath.

Allocation of Mooring

Narrow boats are advised to pre-register as moorings cannot be guaranteed on the day. All pre-registered boats will be provided with a suitable mooring subject to details provided at the time of registration. The organisers reserve the right to make changes to the moorings on the day.

Arrivals

Early notification of arrival date is very much appreciated.

Any trader choosing not to comply with these terms and conditions may be excluded from attending the event. Leighton-Linslade Town Council reserve the right to amend the Terms and Conditions at any time as necessary.

If you have any questions or queries regarding the Linslade Canal Festival, please email eventsteam@leightonlinlade-tc.gov.uk